The JOHN MAXWELL Team

Leadership is influence – Nothing more, nothing less!

Forrest,

Hello, my name is Paul Martinelli, and I am the President of the John Maxwell Team.

I wanted to congratulate you first for being nominated for the John Maxwell Transformational Leadership Award and for making it to our top 100 for 2018.

This is no small feat as we had over 850 nominations this year and many great leaders were nominated.

Our JMTLA review and interview team had many good things to say about you and we are honored to have met you through this nomination process.

We hope to meet you again in the future as you continue to grow as a leader. The John Maxwell Team is made up of coaches and leadership trainers from across the globe.

Should I or anyone from my team be able to answer questions for you about the tribe of transformational leaders we are developing, please let us know.

Sincerely,

Paul Martinelli
