Forrest Tuff is the founder of One Vision Productions, a multimedia production company that focuses on video production, graphic design, and aerial photography for corporate and government agencies. One Vision was named one of Atlanta's Best and Brightest Companies to Work For.

On the creative side, Tuff is an award-winning filmmaker and drone pilot. He is an evaluator for the Atlanta Film Festival, Atlanta Jewish Film Festival and Telly Awards. Tuff wants to continue the legacy of great black entrepreneurial filmmakers such as Oscar Micheaux, Spike Lee and Tyler Perry. He believes that with the right work ethic and team, you can achieve your dreams.
